FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Outlaw Run

Northfield, MN August 2010 - Motorcycle Enthusiasts: Jump on your iron horses August 28th for a ride back in history! Registration for the Outlaw Run starts at 9:00 a.m. at the Northfield Historical Society, formally the First National Bank, where the James-Younger Gangs' attempted robbery was foiled in September of 1876.

Visitors to the event have the opportunity to take a museum tour of the actual spot where Northfielders stood their ground and witness a reenactment by Northfield's James-Younger Gang out on the street, voted numerous times, "Best Western Reenactment in the Country," by True West magazine.

After the smoke clears, bikers will take to the Outlaw Trail, reliving the largest manhunt in U.S. history of its time. The group will return back to Northfield for more camaraderie and to wet their thirsty throats from the dusty trail.

For more information on Outlaw Run and an itinerary go to <http://www.northfieldhistory.org/outlawrun>.

The event costs is $20 and includes a t-shirt. Money raised will benefit the Northfield Historical Society youth groups.

Go to <http://www.visitingnorthfield.com/> for stay-over packages and other activities like the Riverwalk Market Fair from 9 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. on Saturday along the riverside and a Lowbrow—High-Octane 5 event that showcases classic cars, hot rod art and live music from 5:00 p.m. to midnight on Saturday in downtown, Northfield.
